How to Get on COTA

Using this timetable

1. Find the day and direction you plan to travel.
(Example: Monday-Friday, North.)
2. Find the timepoint nearest your destination.
3. Read down that column to choose your arrival time at your destination.
4. Read across, to the left, to find your departure time.
(Your bus stop may not be listed. Use the timepoints to estimate your departure time.)

What's a timepoint?

Only timepoints, or major bus stops, are shown on this schedule. Use the timepoints to estimate your departure and arrival times from your bus stop.

What's a transfer point?

Bus stops where you can get off one bus, and get on another, are transfer points. Please check your timetables or call COTA Customer Service to find out where to make your transfer.

Call 228-1776

Still have questions? For COTA route and schedule information, call 228-1776. Tell us where you'd like to go, and we'll tell you how to get there!

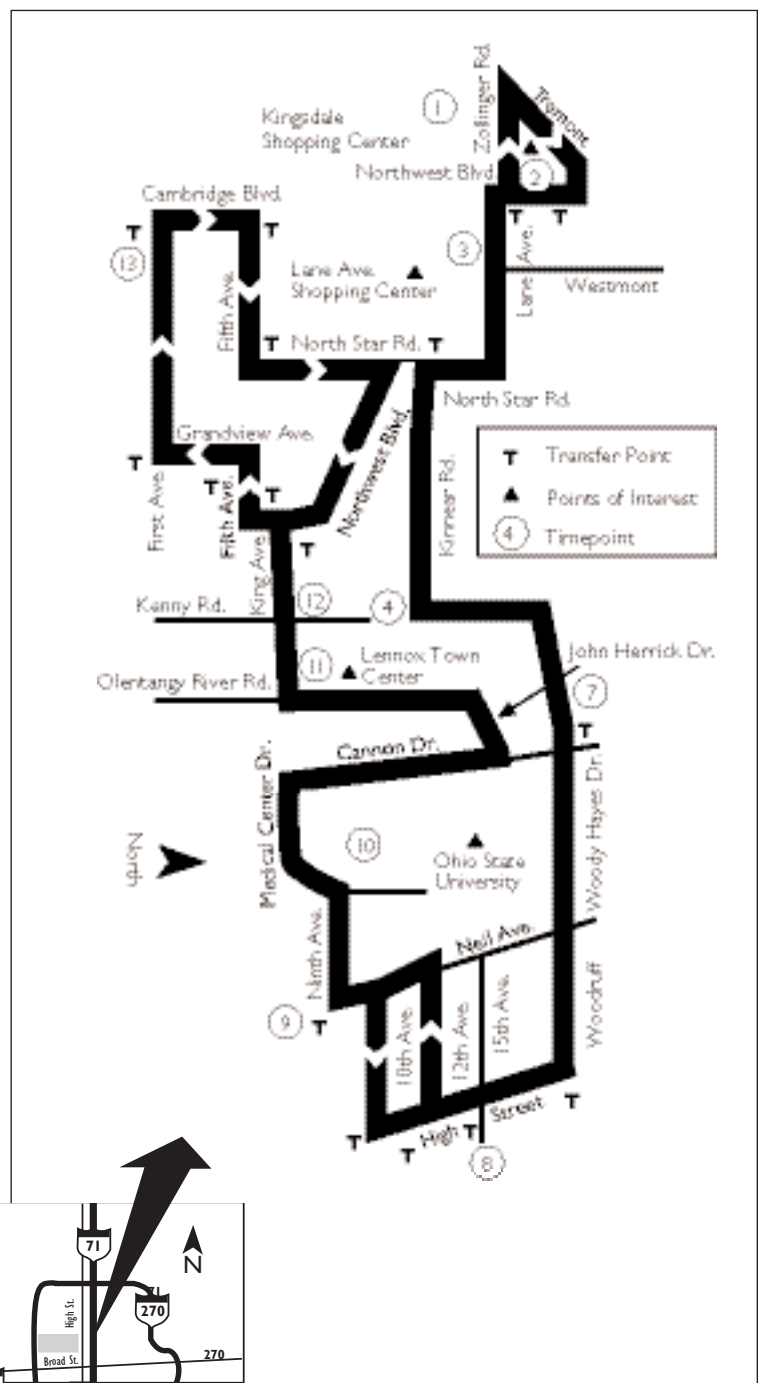

Color bands on bus stop signs tell you whether the routes that stop here are local (black), express (red), or crosstown (green).
